Bryan Thomas Barry CARRIAGE HOUSE MAYOR'S SUITE

History: Bryan Thomas Barry was instrumental in granting a building permit on July 17, 1905 to Dr. and Mrs. Hackler so that construction could begin on the house. Mr. Barry served as Mayor of Dallas for a second term during this construction.

The Mayor's Suite is located on the ground floor of the Carriage House and is very private. A small front porch provides easy access. This Suite has a private bath with a tub/shower combination. Bathrobes are available for your use. We provide a luxurious king-size American Oak bed with a pillow-top mattress and an antique chest of drawers. The sitting area is furnished with a sofa for your comfort. A fully-equipped kitchen is available. This Suite has a television, Internet, and telephone. Guests in the Mayor's Suite have full privileges of the Main House and enjoy the scrumptious breakfast.
