Theodore Roosevelt PRESIDENTIAL SUITE

History: This Suite was named in honor of President Theodore Roosevelt, who served as the twenty-sixth President when this home was built in 1905. President Roosevelt, not quite 43 years old, became the youngest President in our Nation's history. In 1905, he became the first U.S. President to visit Dallas and was a frequent visitor in Texas.

This Suite is The Corinthian's most luxurious. It is on the second floor of the Main House, has a king-size bed, large closets, telephone, Internet, antique armoire/entertainment center with television, and a private bath. We provide bathrobes for your use while you are visiting. The bath is spacious and provides a lovely and romantic atmosphere in which to relax. There are two pedestal sinks, whirlpool tub and marble double shower. This Suite has a nice sitting area at the end of the room.
